Itinerary

Day 1: Arrival in Sifnos

Arrival at Sifnos port and private transfer to the hotel. After check-in, guests have free time to relax and enjoy the atmosphere of the island. Depending on the hotel location, they may explore Apollonia, the island's lively main village, known for its whitewashed alleys, elegant houses, small boutiques and traditional restaurants. In the evening, guests may enjoy dinner in a local taverna and taste some of the island's famous dishes, such as chickpea soup, mastelo or local sweets. Overnight in Sifnos.

Day 2: Platis Gialos & Pottery Heritage

After breakfast, spend the day around Platis Gialos, one of the island's most relaxed seaside areas. Guests can enjoy beach time, local cafés and tavernas, while also discovering the island's pottery tradition. Pottery has played an important role in Sifnos' cultural identity and is closely connected to the island's gastronomy, as many traditional dishes were historically cooked in clay vessels. A visit to the pottery area or a local workshop can be included, offering insight into this long-standing craft. Evening free in Apollonia or by the sea. Overnight in Sifnos.

Day 3: Private Cruise to Polyaigos, Kimolos or North Milos

Today, enjoy a private cruise experience to nearby Cycladic islands and hidden coastal landscapes. Depending on sea conditions and the selected route, guests may visit Polyaigos, Kimolos or the northern coast of Milos. The day includes swimming stops in crystal-clear waters, sea caves, remote beaches and beautiful Aegean scenery. This experience adds a premium leisure element to the program and is ideal for couples, honeymooners or boutique FIT clients. Return to Sifnos in the afternoon and evening at leisure. Overnight in Sifnos.

Day 4: Departure

Breakfast at the hotel and private transfer to the port. Depending on ferry time, guests may enjoy a final walk in Apollonia, buy local sweets or pottery items, or relax by the sea before departure.
